

More Massacres in Syria.

The latest news from Syria is a report that the British Government had received information that a fearful massacre of Christians had taken place at Damascus, in which 500 of them had been killed, including the Dutch Consul. The American Consul was also reported to have been wounded. Full particulars had not come to hand.

The City of Washington steamer also brought the following particulars of the destruction of Deir-el-Kamar, and the panic at Beyrout:

Affairs in the Province are looking blacker and blacker. Yesterday we had the fearful news of the village of Deir-el-Kamar being sacked, burnt, and every Christian male, to the number of two thousand and more, being put to the sword by the Druses, who a fortnight before had disarmed them, in cold blood. The women and children were allowed to escape, and reached the mouth of the Damour River, halfway between this and Sidon, yesterday, when they were brought up last night and this morning, to the number of 1,100, by Her Britannic Majesty's ships Gannet and Mohawk. Of the men of Deir-el-Kamar, not more than thirty have escaped. The town is all burnt. The refugees say that the Turkish soldiers sided with the Druse, helping them to butcher with the people and that they, the Sultan's troops, were the only people who insulted the women, of whom not a few met with the worst treatment by them.

The Levant Herald of July 4th says:

We have received a telegram from Smyrna, dated 27 July, announcing the arrival of the Syrian steamer, and giving the following in advance of her arrival here: The steamer left Beyrout on the 23d June, and reports that at that time the panic among the Christian population had become general. Nearly the whole of the Frank inhabitants, and as many of the native Christians as could, had taken refuge on board the English, French, and Russian men-of-war in the roads. Her Majesty's steamer Exmouth had embarked the cash, books and personnel of the Ottoman Bank, and as many of the other English residents as possible. In addition to this, parties of marines from the British, French and Russian ships had landed to assist in maintaining order at that town. At Damascus the Christians were also in a state of panic, and Abd-el-Kader came forward to use his influence for their protection.

From the Paris Patrie.

We received intelligence of great importance from Beyrout, dated June 24. Ismail Pacha had just arrived from Constantinople, with 2,500 men, to put a stop to the massacre of the Christians. Ismail Pacha is the general who during the Crimean war, made himself illustrious by the defence of Kars. His arrival, in a great measure, restored confidence.

Union Convention in Alabama.

A Bell and Everett State Convention was held Selma, Ala., on the 7th inst.—Elected were appointed, and resolutions adopted endorsing the right of the slaveholder to convey his slaves into the territories as the common property of the Union, and the duty of Congress to legislate for its protection; condemning the doctrine of Squatter Sovereignty; endorsing Bell and Everett as worthy the support of the South, and recommending each county in the State to organize Bell and Everett clubs. A committee was appointed to publish an address to the people, and the Convention adjourned sine die.

Aerial Voyage Across the Atlantic.

In Philadelphia preparations are being rapidly made for the departure of Prof. Lowe on his aerial expedition across the Atlantic. Subscriptions are being received by Prof. Cresson, President of the Franklin Institute, and by the Secretary of the Board of Trade, for the purpose of equipping the air ship with instruments for inflation, &c. Prof. Lowe is very sanguine of success. His equipments are said to be perfect, and include in the list an excellent life boat. He states that he will take letters for all parts of Europe, and is fully confident that he can deliver them in forty-eight hours. The crew of the "Great Western" is to consist of four persons viz: Prof. Lowe and two scientific assistants, and an experienced sea captain, in case it should ever be necessary to take the water.

Cornet, who killed Major Neighbors, Indiana agent in Texas, has himself been hunted down and murdered. He deserved his fate, for he coolly assassinated a public officer whilst in the discharge of his duties, affording the Reserve Indians protection from the ruthless attacks of abandoned white men.

Punishment of a Cruel Father.

It will be remembered that a time since we published a notice that a citizen of the Fourth ward was in the habit of maltreating his family, and beating one of his children, to whom he appeared to have an especial dislike, so that the screams of the little sufferer could be heard throughout the entire neighborhood, leaving the marks of the horsewhip he used upon the body of the child. He was waited upon a number of times by his living near, and remonstrated with for his cruelty. He promised everything, but when in an ill humor would abuse his family, knock the child down and beat it until senseless. Forbearance having come to a virtuous committee waited upon him in the evening about ten o'clock, after he had retired, and requested him to dress himself and step outside, as some important business was to be transacted. Suspecting nothing he came out, was immediately seized, gagged, thrown upon the ground, his clothes stripped from his person, and a stout man with a leather strap gave him a taste of the punishment he had been so ready to inflict upon his child. A physician was in the party, who felt the pulse of the brute, and allowed the executioner to lay on as long as he thought it could be borne without endangering the life of the prisoner. After he had received a just reward for his cruelty he was liberated, and informed that if he did not wish to have a repetition of the punishment the sooner he left the city the better for him. Acting upon the suggestion he left the next morning and has not been heard from.

Both wings of the Democratic party are now independently organized in New Jersey, and are ready to proceed to battle. In fact they have commenced "chawing" each other already. The American Union is inclined to side with the Douglasites. The result will be that the Republicans will turn in and clean out the whole foul set.

Personal, Political, and News Items.

Coming over to Lincoln is now the fashion. We will note a few recent instances. O. E. Kellogg, Esq., of Haron county, has left the pro-Slavery Democracy, and taken the stump for "Honest Old Abe." John R. Dutwiler, of Madison, Wis., who was prominently spoken of by the Democrats for Clerk of Board of Supervisors, and who was a hard shell Democrat, who changed to a Lincoln Republican by reading the proceedings of the Democratic Baltimore Convention. So he states in the Madison Journal.

A man and boy, names not given, who took shelter under a tree in Lake township, Ashland county, during a shower on Thursday, were killed by lightning. At Loudenville a valuable horse was struck dead the same afternoon.

At Coneseo, Lake Ontario, on the 16th inst., 14,000 white fish were taken at a single haul of a seine. White fish seem to be less plentiful in the lower part of Lake Erie this season than usual. The fisheries in the vicinity of Fredonia fall to fully supply the demand for fresh white fish.

Mr. John J. Lowe met with a terrible death near Tecumseh, Mich., a few days ago. His legs accidentally slipped into the hopper of a thrashing machine he was feeding, and before it could be stopped he was drawn down by the sharp teeth of the swiftly revolving cylinder and horribly mangled.

The supply of beef cattle in New York last week was unusually large, and prices depreciated from five to eight dollars per head during the week, equal to over one cent per pound. Over 4,800 head were received, including many droves of well fed western cattle.

Archbishop Hughes, of New York, is said to be in bad health. He has gone to St. Catharines, Canada, a popular watering-place.

A London Shoe-dealer, who recently failed, showed a one-sided balance sheet. Liabilities a quarter of a million dollars, assets eleven thousand.

Hon. I. N. Arnold has been nominated as the Republican candidate for Congress in the Chicago District, in the place of Mr. Farwell, the present member.

The Pennsylvania of Philadelphia, the old Democratic organ, has changed owners, and came out for Breck and Lane. This looks ominous for Douglas in the Keystone.

Mr. Seward's Letter.

The following characteristic and unselfish letter was written by Senator Seward to the Republican Committee of New York:

ALBANY, June 26, 1860.

GENTLEMEN:—Your letter addressed to me at Washington, inviting me to meet the Republican Committee of New York, on my way home from the Capital, and designating the 17th instant for that purpose, just found me at home here. I escaped from Washington before the adjournment, to fulfill some domestic engagements here, which could not be delayed. I rejoice in the indications of activity on the part of the Republicans of the city of New York in the canvass which is opening under most auspicious circumstances. You will, I hope, be favored with the visits of many of the Republican Representatives of this State and other States. For myself, I desire to be regarded as always with you, and as one of yourselves. I need a little time here to repair the wastes of eighteen months absence from home; a little time to bring up arrears of a correspondence too generous and patriotic to be neglected. I would find hope that my active efforts in the canvass might not be necessary. But I hold myself bound by obligations of public duty and of personal gratitude to contribute all the exertion necessary on my part to the establishment of the government, by the election of its chosen and worthy candidates, Lincoln and Hamlin, and those obligations I shall faithfully fulfill. Very sincerely,

Your friend and obedient servant,
WILLIAM H. SEWARD.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.

We learn from a gentleman who resides at Galea, Delaware county, that on Wednesday evening about 7 o'clock, Mrs. Van Fleet, wife of Mr. Thomas Van Fleet, of that place, had occasion to visit her husband in a flouring mill owned and run by him in that place, and as she passed near an upright shaft which turns the bolting apparatus, her clothes were caught by the shaft and she was whirled around with great rapidity, striking her head at every revolution against a projection of the wall, causing instant death. The lady had been on a visit to this city and just returned—put off some of her outward apparel and hastened to greet her husband, but alas! here she caught his eye, she fell into the embrace of the cold, icy arms of death. She was an estimable lady, and leaves a fond husband and two little children to mourn her untimely death. —Columbus Journal.

TEXAS FOR BRECKENRIDGE.—San Jacinto will have to look out for his laurels in the State of Texas, which seems to have been conceded to Houston by common consent. John Marshall, Chairman of the Democratic State Committee of Texas, thus writes to Virginia:

"The State electors of Texas warmly responded to the nominations of Breckinridge and Lane, and the Democracy pledge themselves to carry Texas in November for the ticket by fifteen thousand majority."

Here is the New York Herald's notion of the way to get out of "the present crisis."

The best thing that Mr. Douglas and Mr. Johnson can do, and the best thing that Mr. Bell and Mr. Everett can do, in this crisis, for themselves, their friends and their country, is to withdraw from the Presidential canvass, so as to remove all obstructions to a fair fight between Lincoln and Breckinridge, the only two candidates for President who will be heard of in the electoral vote of the Union.

At a recent desperate affray in Clay county, Missouri, three men were killed and two wounded. A Dr. Jordan had made himself obnoxious by his testimony in a certain case, and a party of five, armed with guns, met him in a store at Smithville, and told him they came to take his life. The Doctor drew a pistol and commenced firing, killing three of his assailants and wounding the other two. An investigation resulted in his acquittal, on the ground of acting in self-defence.

The Iowa State Register, the ablest Democratic paper in the State, has pulled down the Douglas and run up the Lincoln flag.

NEW YORK DOG KILLING.—The dog killers in New York are paid 25 cents a head for bringing victims to the Dog-pound, but are not allowed to shoot down the canines found running at large in some smaller cities we wot of. The total number of dogs destroyed in New York since the 14th of June—the first day of the present season when the law went into operation—up to July the 25th, is 3,007, at an expense to the city of $731. The regulation is that no dogs shall be received from boys. The boys, however, drive a paying business by catching dogs and delivering them over to a class of men known as dog brokers. These brokers, also having an eye to business, preserve the most valuable breeds for the late fall trade among strangers. It is only the comparatively worthless that are drowned at the expense of the city.

Obituary Notice.

DIED—On Tuesday morning, July 25th, at his residence in Millersburg, Ohio, after a short illness, lasting three months, Doctor JACOB VOHRLES, in the 57th year of his age, leaving a family and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn his loss.

The deceased was a native of Fayette county, Pa., but became a resident of Millersburg, Ohio, in 1845, on his arrival at that place he was selected as the calling of his profession, and after practicing the study of medicine for some time, he was elected to the office of the Medical College, where he resided for some time, and where he qualified himself as an attendant of this profession. After a few years practicing in Jefferson county, he moved to Millersburg, Ohio, where he resumed the practice of his profession, and for many years had the fullest confidence of the community in his skill as a Physician and integrity as a man.

In 1859 he was elected by the Ohio Legislature Associate Justice of the Court of Common Pleas, of Holmes county, which position he occupied with very distinguished ability for seven years. In 1867 he was again elected by the people of his county to be elected to the State Legislature, and in 1868 was re-elected to the same honorable position. While a member of the Legislature he commanded the highest respect of his constituents for the distinguished manner in which he discharged his duty as a public servant, and his high moral bearing as a man. After returning to his profession, he abandoned the further practice of his profession, having by regular and energy, accumulated a competency for life of this world's goods.

The deceased lived almost his entire years, during which time he received very flattering marks of the high esteem and confidence of his neighbors and acquaintances in his own country. He was not only a man of the most perfect life, but a man of a most refined and noble character, and a most devoted and worthy member of the Church.

What a happy lot is it to know that a man need not strive to leave his estate to his children, but that he can leave it to his countrymen to use as they see fit, and that he can leave it to his countrymen to use as they see fit, and that he can leave it to his countrymen to use as they see fit.

What a happy lot is it to know that a man need not strive to leave his estate to his children, but that he can leave it to his countrymen to use as they see fit, and that he can leave it to his countrymen to use as they see fit.
